PROVENCE

WORLD HERITAGE SITES IN PROVENCE

Eight exceptional sites located less than two hours' drive from each other naturally form the Provence World Heritage Circuit.

Make the most of your stay by embarking on an incredible adventure to discover some of humanity's finest heritage treasures:

the Chauvet II Cave, a reconstruction of the decorated Pont-d'Arc Cave, known as the Chauvet-Pont-d'Arc Cave, the Cité Radieuse in Marseille as part of Le Corbusier's architectural work, the Ancient Theatre, its surroundings and the Triumphal Arch of Orange, the historic centre of Avignon: Palais des Papes, Episcopal Ensemble and Pont d'Avignon, the Roman and Romanesque monuments of Arles, the Pont du Gard, the Abbey Church of Saint-Gilles-du-Gard as part of the serial property 'The Routes of Santiago de Compostela in France' and the Maison Carrée in Nîmes.

This route invites you to discover, as you visit, monuments that bear witness to the region's thousand-year history and together illustrate the richness and diversity of Provence's cultural and architectural heritage.
